General Guidelines:

- 1. The College's Publications Center exists primarily to manage the College's publications aimed at external audiences:
  - A. General Catalog Semester Schedules
  - B. Community Education Schedules
  - C. Viewbook
  - D. Program and Office Brochures (and display advertising designs)
- 2. The Center also produces routine campus wide materials: the newsletter, telephone directories, special event signage, etc.
- 3. The Center also provides some expertise in assisting instructors in projects that require a graphics component.
